Dear Mr. Dulles:

I have reviewed the study on brainwashing which was prepared by your staff and I wish to express my appreciation to you for having provided me a copy. This volume has been received by my staff as a welcome addition to our critically limited knowledge in the area. We look forward to receiving subsequent studies of this nature from your staff and anticipate a broad and profound application of these materials in the formulation of future Air Force operational and training policies. I will, of course, forward any comments on this and future studies should the test of time in the use of these materials make it advisable.

Sincerely yours,

N. F. Twining
